Claim 12 (Cancelled).

Claim 13 (Pending) - presently amended. Claim 13 is amended by replacing the broad definition of the compounds set forth in the third amendment of claim 13, with a Markush group of eight compounds and a pharmaceutically acceptable salt of said compounds. Said eight compounds are the eight compounds, identified in patent claims 16-23 respectively. (The same eight compounds are identified in presently amended claims 28, 31 and 40.) Whereas in the present amendment, claim 13 is limited in the definition of the compounds, claim 13 is broadened by reciting the pharmaceutically acceptable salt of said compounds. Patent claim 13 depends from patent claim 1 which defines the compounds broadly and in the last line recites "or a pharmaceutically acceptable salt thereof". Accordingly, amended claim 13 is within the scope of and supported by patent claim 1.
